  - Please review it with your chapter/chapter leadership and then we will vote on it at GA on April 23

Director of Health and Safety, Sophia Pascente, kupharisk@gmail.com:

- Lauryn and I held a roundtable with the Social Chairs on April 6th and I wanted to share two important takeaways
  - As we progress with having more social events this semester, the university could come in and institute public health bans on chapters if they believe the chapter is violating university guidelines and standards. Be cognizant of this and make sure that you are presenting a good panhellenic image in terms of optics.
  - IFC amended their social moratorium to allow for events at third party venues. This means socials co-sponsored by an IFC chapter can resume. However, you guys should be asking the chapter for documentation from IFC of their events approval so you guys don't get stuck in a negative position.

- Mental Health Awareness Week April 26th-30th
  - Guest Speaker Zach Westerbeck on April 28th and 29th at 6pm
  - More promotional materials will be coming out soon
  - Delegates- have a conversation with your chapter leadership about incentivizing participation and come up with a rough participation plan/ percentage of your chapter that will be in attendance for us by next GA

Director of Public Relations, Lauryn Sall, kuphapr@gmail.com:

- First draft of the guidebook will be done tomorrow! Woohoo!
- Building off of Sophia, I have been in communication with your social chairs and PR's to make sure members are contributing to depicting positive COVID-19 safety that includes wearing masks and following CDC guidelines on camera and off. If you have any questions in regards to that, please email me!
- Just so you all are aware, with any graphic of a philanthropy event, I will only post it if your PR submits it to me through a form I have given them. I will not be going through each Chapter's Instagram to screenshot those graphics. So, if you do not see a graphic posted on PHA, reach out to your PR so they can send it my way. Thank you!!
- I will be posting a series of graphics on the feed of the PHA Instagram that are about Sexual Assault Awareness Month, Autism Acceptance Month, National Arab American Heritage Month, and Celebrate Diversity Month so encourage members to interact with that post and with the Instagram in general!
  - It is also Advisor Appreciation Month so reach out to your advisors and let them know how much you appreciate them:)

Many of your roles overlap and it is important to keep everyone in the loop. This is also a great message to pass on to your exec members as they attend PHA Roundtables and receive updates and announcements from our Exec.
